

Timeline of Senator Murray's Efforts to Fight Bush Administration Regulation Undermining Women's Health Care:

- July 23rd, 2008 – Murray, Clinton lead 28 Senators in initial call to abandon attempt to undermine women's health
- August 8th, 2008 – Clinton and Murray call for meeting with HHS Secretary on proposed regulation
- September 25th, 2008 - Murray, Clinton lead 28 senators in letter urging HHS Secretary to halt proposed rule
- September 23rd, 2008 – Murray and Clinton Meet with Secretary Leavitt to underscore their serious concerns about a proposed HHS regulation
- November 20th, 2008 - Clinton and Murray introduce legislation to stop HHS rule
- January 22nd, 2009 - On 36th Anniversary of Roe v. Wade Ruling, Murray Leads Letter Asking President Obama to Rescind Bush HHS Rule